JAP TROUBLE NOT SERIOUS

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—The reports of Governor Gillette and United States District Attorney Devlin show that the attack on the Japanese restaurant keepers in San Francisco were not of a serious nature. The San Francisco police are busy handling the strikers at the time the attack was made on the Japanese. It is expected that the Japanese Government will be satisfied with this explanation.

SERIOUS UPRISING IN CHINA

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)
SWATOW, China, May 28.—The rebels have begun attacks on Chunglung and Tungchang, and there is much disorder. The uprising is attributed to the British peerage may engage in trade but Hawaiian Royalty is denied such privilege, at least the royalty in the branch of forestry. This morning some enterprising native proceeded to tack some elaborate notices on one of the royal palm trees that are in front of the statue of Kamehameha the Great, maula of the Judiciary building. The notices which were in the native language, were an advertisement for the sale of some lands on this island. The proposition seemed rather a merry one to a man up a tree, but nothing was said to the native, while he drove the tacks into the trunk of the handsome tree.

NO SIGNS ON ROYAL PALMS

CARETAKER GREENE PROMPTLY
CAUSED A NOTICE TO BE REMOVED THIS MORNING.

But when Col. Greene, the caretaker of the government grounds, hove in sight and saw what was doing, he put on all canvas as it were, and ran before the wind toward the unsuspecting native. The latter must have thought that some pirate had nabbed him when the indignant Colonel came alongside. It took about two minutes for those notices to be removed. The array of tacks was still in the tree, however, this morning.

VISITORS SEEING THE PINEAPPLE COUNTRY

LARGE CROWD ACCOMPANIES
CONGRESSMEN AND WILL SPEND NIGHT AT WAIALUA.

The Congressional party is today enjoying the beauties of Wahiawa, with its great pineapple industry and vast possibilities. A special train of observation coaches left the Honolulu depot at 9:30 o'clock, and almost every member of the visiting party, including the ladies were aboard, while an escort of some fifty of the most prominent citizens accompanied them as an escort.

The most of the day will be spent in looking over the agricultural conditions of the district, and some time will also be spent in going over the 14,000 acres of military reserve, about which so much has been said. Luncheon has been arranged for in the pineapple district, and about 4 o'clock automobiles will be in readiness to carry the party to Waialua where they will be entertained at the Haleiwa Hotel as guests of the Planters' Association. Tonight besides an elaborate dinner which will be served at the hotel, various forms of entertainment have been arranged for, including Japanese wrestling, native dances, and music, with possibly a social dance at the hotel later.

The party will remain over night at the hotel and come back to Honolulu sometime tomorrow morning by train or automobiles, as the visitors themselves may elect.

FEDERAL OFFICES WILL NOT BE MOVED

REFUSAL OF ATTORNEY GENERAL BONAPARTE BLOCKS THE PLAN.

There seems little prospect that the Judiciary building will be repaired so long as Governor Carter is in office. He is understood to have stated positively that he would not have such work undertaken. In consequence of his stand in the matter, the $50,000 appropriated by the last legislature for the rehabilitation of the building, will not be used. If some other governor takes hold of affairs, then there is a chance that the repairs may be begun.

The United States offices will remain in the Judiciary building until the repairs are started. The recent adverse ruling on the part of Attorney General Bonaparte, to the proposed removal to the McCandless block, necessitates the Federal offices remaining in the present quarters. It is not thought likely that the renovation of the building will be attempted before next year, if indeed, such work is then begun.

MOST NOTABLE BANQUET EVER HELD IN HONOLULU

THE AFTER DINNER SPEECHES BY OUR VISITORS WERE A REVELATION IN THE ART AND GRACES OF ORATORY—WIT AND ANECDOTE ILLUMINED AND ILLUSTRATED WEIGHTY MATTERS—NOT A DULL SPEECH NOR A DULL PASSAGE IN SPEECHES

The banquet tendered by the Commercial bodies of Honolulu to the visiting Congressmen at the Moana Hotel last evening was one of the most notable affairs of the kind ever given in the Hawaiian Islands. In many respects it was undoubtedly the most notable. Never have so many able speeches on subjects so pertinent and important to Hawaii by men in a position to do so much to transform wishes into fact, been made at a gathering in Honolulu.

Considered merely as examples of the art of speech making, old residents would have to go far back in their memory to recall anything at all comparable to the after dinner speaking them. There were promises that all of last night's affair in uniform high quality of oratorical effort, of weighty matters discussed with such uniform force, suggestiveness, candor of expression and withal so interestingly, with such graces and felicities of manner. There was not a dull speech, nor a speech with dull passages in it. Wit and anecdote illumined and illustrated, and the mere privilege of being present to hear is one that will be treasured by everyone who was there.

The banquet was given by the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Association and the Trustees of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association to the visiting congressional party. There were nearly one hundred and fifty present, including all but two of the Congressmen of the party, and the leading men of the community. The party were seated at long tables arranged almost in the form of a triangle. Delegate Kalaniana'ole presided, and George W. Smith, president of the Merchants' Association was the toastmaster of the occasion. Near the Delegate and the toastmaster were seated Senator Piles, Congressman Hepburn, Congressman Littlefield, Chief Justice Frear, Judge Dole, and Acting Governor Atkinson. The other members of the congressional party were seated congenially with members of the various organizations. The tables were profusely decorated with red carnations. The menu was an elaborate one on specially designed cards.

With the exception of Col. Hepburn, nearly every one of the congressional speakers—all who touched on the subject at all—gave most positive assurance that there was no fear either in the past, now, or in the future of war or other difficulty with Japan. There was almost equal unanimity in the assurances given that the United States would steadily proceed with the fortification of the islands and with the improvement of its harbors, the assurances on the latter point being, if possible more unanimous and positive than on the matter of fortifications. More than one speaker ventured the belief that not only would Honolulu and Hilo harbors receive the improving aid of Congress but that there would be at least one harbor on each of the principal islands of the group which would be improved in this way.

There were expressions from every one of the Congressional speakers assuring the people of these islands of a sympathetic interest in the islands and their questions and problems, a sympathy quickened by the opportunity that had been given them to see the islands themselves, and by the royal hospitality that had been extended to them. There were promises that all

HE BEQUEATHED THE PROPERTY
WITH FEW MINOR EXCEPTIONS TO CHILDREN.

A petition was filed this afternoon by S. W. Wilder and R. W. Catcart for the probate of the will of the late Captain Benjamin F. Chapman. The petitioners are named as executors. The will was made May 13, 1906. With the exception of some minor bequests, all of the property is divided equally between the children of deceased. The estate consists of $50,000 in stocks and bonds.

The balance of the estate is to be divided equally share and share alike between the following relatives: James Sweet Chapman; Ben S. Chapman of Tahiti, Harriet Tunandra Drollet, a daughter of Tahiti, Flora Dexter of Tahiti, a daughter; Louisa Chapman, formerly the wife of Sam Gooding of Tahiti, a daughter; 1 share to the widow of the deceased son Arian E. Chapman and two children residing at Benicia, California.

Col. Norris Increasing Mortgage On Kahuku

BUT THE TOTAL MORTGAGE IS NOT A VERY LARGE ONE, BE-ING ONLY $10,000 ON 184,000 ACRES

Col. Norris has increased the mortgage on the famous Kahuku ranch in Kau. The transaction was filed this afternoon at the registrar's office. The original mortgage was for $5,000, with two additional payments of $1,500 each, which brought the total up to $8,000. Today this amount was increased by $2,000, to $10,000.

The mortgagee is C. Spreckels & Co. The ranch in question consists of about 184,000 acres of land. Its principal claim to notoriety is the fact that the outbreaks of lava from the upper slopes of Mauna Loa generally cross Col. Norris' ranch and furthermore, because it is one of the largest of fee simple holdings in the islands.
